

The Poetry Dissection:
WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO LULU?

by Charles Causley

P Predict what the poem is going to be about based on the title of the poem alone (Pre-reading)
O Out-loud, read the poem and jot down words that stand out to you (While-reading)
E Explain what you understand about the poem in your own words (Post-reading)
T Try to derive the themes, values, messages etc from your understanding of the poem (Post-reading)
R Relate the poem to your real life. Have you ever experienced something similar or do you know anything about it? (Post-reading)
Y Your final verdict (conclusion) about the poem  (Post-reading)

The Poetry Dissection:

A POISON TREE

by William Blake

P Predict what the poem is going to be about based on the title of the poem alone (Pre-reading)
O Out-loud, read the poem and jot down words that stand out to you (While-reading)
E Explain what you understand about the poem in your own words (Post-reading)
T Try to derive the themes, values, messages etc from your understanding of the poem (Post-reading)
R Relate the poem to your real life. Have you ever experienced something similar or do you know anything about it? (Post-reading)
Y Your final verdict (conclusion) about the poem  (Post-reading)	